

LYNDONVILLE

The Heath Clark Co. has been sold to Moore, Trip Co. of Newport. Mr. and Mrs. Heath and daughter, Jennie, leave soon for Winter Haven, Fla. They make their trip by auto. All are sorry to lose this family from our village.

Mrs. Curtis Squires, who underwent an operation at Brightlook hospital last week, died there Monday noon. The obituary will be published later.

Dr. Dwinell is visiting his son, Fred, at North Easton, Mass.

Charles Stevens has bought the Mrs. David Slisby house on Main street next to the library.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Hatch visited Mrs. Hatch's parents at Fairlee, Sunday.

Miss Maud Folsenby of St. Johnsbury is teaching music at the graded schools, this being her second year.

Mrs. George Ide gave a card party to a number of her friends Monday afternoon at her home.

Fred Cummings, was in Boston over Sunday.

Mrs. I. B. Hutchinson from Stanstead, P. Q., is visiting at Mrs. C. W. Hubbard's.

A. F. Christopher and wife leave today for New York, Springfield and other places, making the trip with their new Hudson car.

Mrs. Samuel W. is visiting at Charles Stuart's for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Lucius Park are spending a few days at Jericho.

Mrs. Herbert Doyle from Newport visited relatives in town Tuesday. She had come from St. Johnsbury, where she visited her son, Dr. Doyle, who is at Brightlook hospital, and she reports him very comfortable after having a serious operation performed last week.

Mrs. Dr. Brown entertained the Christmas club today.

The library committee of the Lyndonville club are to give a public whist party Friday evening, Sept. 29, at music hall for the benefit of the library, to raise money for the subscription for magazines for the coming year. The Norris boys will give a concert before the card playing.

Mrs. Ruth W. is visiting at the Young Ladies' Industrial society Monday night. All reported a fine time.

ST. JOHNSBURY CENTER

Mrs. Ida Hughes of Springfield, Mass., has been visiting at Daniel Gallagher's.

Luther Green of St. Johnsbury has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Gallagher. Mr. Green was 84 years old this month and walked from his house on Portland street simply "for the pleasure of walking."

The following letter received by the members of the St. Johnsbury Center band will be of interest to all those who contributed in any way to the Fourth of July celebration. In consideration of the fact that the band is unable to give concerts as expected by those who contributed so generously to their support, the "Good Will Club" voted to divide the proceeds of the Fourth of July celebration equally among the members of the band.

EAST CONCORD.

(Mrs. John Folsom, Correspondent.)

Mr. and Mrs. Alban Thompson of Bethlehem visited at the home of their brother, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Phillips, last week. Mr. Phillips' niece and husband, Mr. and Mrs. William Morris, and Mr. Howard from New Haven, Conn., were also guests at the Phillips home last week.

Miss Bliss was at her home in Lancaster over Sunday.

Mrs. Willis Emery was a business visitor in Lancaster last Saturday.

Among those who attended the show "The Cattle King" at Lunenburg Thursday evening were Guy and Earl Isham, Mr. and Mrs. James Warren and son, Harold, Mr. and Mrs. James Hartshorn, Ivan and Mildred, and Miss St. John.

Mertie Kellogg, who has been teaching in Oklahoma for the past two years, returned home Sunday morning returning Monday night to Boston, where she will attend Harvard college.

George Gleason of Lancaster was a guest of Harold Warren Saturday.

Mrs. Edna Crawford and friend from St. Johnsbury are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fisher.

A small crowd attended the dance at White's hall Friday night, also the show, "The Chapman Sisters," Saturday night.

Mrs. Sadie Parks has sold her cows to Lewis King of Lunenburg.

The corn row that was to have been held at James Hartshorn's Saturday evening for the benefit of the L. A. S., was postponed on account of rain until this Wednesday evening.

John Folsom, J. C. Warren and Harold, Alden Briggs, James Grant and Mabel Fisher were business visitors in St. Johnsbury Saturday.

Elvira Sayers of Norwich is working for Leon Fisher.

Mrs. Mattie Gale from Asbestos, Que., is visiting her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Welr.

Mr. and Mrs. Perley Moffett of St. Johnsbury were week-end visitors of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Isham.

Mrs. Will Sayers was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sayers at Mies Pond, Monday.

Marcia Isham has finished work at the Hights House, Lunenburg and returned home.

Mrs. Hattie Isham was a visitor in Lunenburg one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Elroy Adair and little daughter, were week-end visitors in Dalton and Jefferson.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Smith visited their sister in Berlin and Gorham last week. They were accompanied home by Mr. Smith's sister, Mrs. Laura Paine, who was an over-Sunday guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. Harriman.

Mrs. Harry Sweet and little Kenneth of Fitzdale were guests of her mother, Mrs. Dora Grant, one day last week.

LOWER WATERFORD.

(Mrs. G. A. Ballou, Correspondent.)

Mrs. Reed of Brockton, Mass., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Joseph Morrison.

Mrs. Katherine Morrison is spending the week with her son, W. G. Morrison, at Barre.

Mr. and Mrs. Jock Moulton of West Bedford, Mass., visited at C. L. Hemmings' recently.

Dr. Plin Bolton of Mechanicville, N. Y., was in town and called on his mother and other relatives recently.

Mrs. Frances Brown of South Hero was a recent guest of E. W. Powers.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Horv of Paris, Me., were in town last week, called here by the death of Mrs. Horv's sister, Mrs. Bean, at Littleton.

Mrs. Lavinia Church Beane died at the home of her brother, Allen Church, at Littleton, Sept. 17. She was born in Waterford 86 years ago last June. Most of her life was spent with her parents. In her early life she taught school. She was a faithful member of the Congregational church of this place and was the oldest member. Twenty-three years ago she went to Littleton to live at the home of her brother. Services were held there last Tuesday forenoon, and interment was in the family lot beside her father and mother in Lower Waterford cemetery. She is survived by one sister, Mrs. Celia Horv, of Paris, Me., and one brother, Allen Church, of Littleton, and one niece, Mrs. Ernest Powers, of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brown returned to their home in Merrimack, Mass., last week after spending several weeks with their son, Ed. Brown.

EAST BARNET.

(Mrs. C. W. Tilton, Correspondent.)

Mrs. Alice Caswell of St. Johnsbury and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ramsey of Walpole, N. H., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Quinby last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bedell spent Saturday in Sherbrooke.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Richardson and son, Samuel, spent Sunday in St. Johnsbury, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Jewett.

Freeman Kidder spent Saturday in Lunenburg to attend the funeral of a niece.

A. K. Bryant of Braintree, Mass., spent last week here visiting Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Burbank.

Miss Bertha Cheney spent one day last week in Barnet visiting Mrs. Frank Cheney.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hall visited his father at Peacham Sunday.

Albert Amell spent Sunday in Danville visiting friends.

The house owned by Roy brothers, occupied by Fred Champamy, has been moved across the road and is being repaired.

Ernest Niblock of Lyndonville spent the week-end at his home here.

Herman Hoyt is attending school at McIndoe academy.

Nichol Kay spent Saturday in West Barnet.

Harvey Burbank and son, Natt, spent Saturday in Danville.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Page and Mr. and Mrs. Burns Page and children of Groton were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Wormwood and Charles Wormwood.

Mrs. Mary Paddleford of St. Johnsbury Center, Mrs. Emma Smith of North Monroe, and Mrs. Annie Dodge of Wilton, N. H., were guests of Mrs. J. C. Roy and Mrs. E. F. Paddleford during last week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Paulette and son, Paul, and Miss Lizzie Paulette of Claremont, N. H., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Manard Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Bonnette and Mrs. Durgin and daughter, Helen, and Mr. and Mrs. George Durgin of Bradford, Mass., visited Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McGill and Mrs. and Mrs. R. B. Gammell Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brown of South Ryegate were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. McDowell Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Emma Smith of North Monroe was the guest of Mrs. George Nelson Friday and Saturday.

News came to Mrs. G. A. Nelson Saturday that her nephew, Bernie Webster, was killed at North Dakota in an automobile race.

Mrs. Hattie Wood, who has been spent several days in West Barnet visiting her daughter, Mrs. Dudley Blaine, returned home Thursday.

Ed. Newell has been confined to the house the past week by illness.

Frank Sproat spent Saturday in Barnet with his daughter, Mrs. Alvin Barnet.

Mrs. Clarence Chamberlain visited Mrs. Vera Welch Saturday.

Mrs. Hattie Woodward of St. Johnsbury visited Mrs. Gertrude Walker Thursday.

Mrs. Oliver Brown and Mrs. George Baird spent last week in West Lebanon, N. H., visiting relatives.

A business meeting of the Ladies' Chapel society will be held in the chapel Thursday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Amell and daughter, Margaret, spent Sunday in Lyndonville, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hector McQueen.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Cheney and daughter, Leona, spent Sunday in Barnet with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cheney.

Little Irene Menard was quite sick last week.

Alex Welch is working for Ernest Randall.

Miss Belle Gammell attended the county Sunday school convention at St. Johnsbury Wednesday.

Mrs. L. C. Ames was the guest of Mrs. Jesse Legacy at St. Johnsbury the last of the week.

Elbridge Farnsworth has been spending several days in Lyman, N. H., visiting friends.

Miss Emma Lindsay of Greensboro is the guest of Mrs. Fred Lindsay.

William Smiley, who has been spending the past three months in Barnet and North Monroe, began work in Roy brothers' shop Monday.

MCINDOE FALLS.

(J. D. Nichols, Correspondent.)

L. M. Hunt and little daughter returned to their home at Pompanoosuc the first of last week. The little boy will stay here at M. D. Hunt's for a while.

Mr. M. D. Hunt has been quite sick. Miss Chappel of Island Pond has been caring for her. She is on the gain.

Mr. Guyer of Passumpsic has moved into the Milliken house.

John Gibson spent the week-end with his parents, returning to Northfield Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cass have been entertaining two of her brothers the past week.

A. P. Field of Hartford, Conn., spent several days recently with his people, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Field, also visiting his sisters and brother at West Barnet.

Mrs. Walter Hartog and little daughter returned to New York last week after spending the summer with her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. John Larvey.

Mr. Bliss and Miss Seraph attended the Sunday school meeting at St. Johnsbury one day last week.

Mrs. Fobrecht and Miss Annie Fobrecht of Boston are guests at W. M. Phelps.

Mrs. W. W. Dow of Pompanoosuc was in town last Friday.

James Liddle and Andrew Guthrie spent last week in Concord and Boston.

E. H. Shaw of Toronto visited his sister, Mrs. C. L. Duncan, last Monday.

Miss Emily Dewey of Boston has been visiting friends in town. She returned home Tuesday.

Mrs. Florence Bridgman Steadman of Holyoke, Mass., visited her aunt, Miss Martha Gleason, at Mrs. Lyon's several days recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Tilton of Dorchester, Mass., are visiting their sister, Mrs. James Liddle.

Misses Dorothy and Carolyn Nichols spent the week-end at H. J. Phelps at Barnet.

Mrs. Mabel McConach and Velma Chase visited in Barnet last Friday.

Mr. Hunt went to Burlington Monday.

C. B. Duncan returned to his work at the garage Monday after a week's absence on account of the illness of his father, C. L. Duncan. Mr. Duncan was a little better at this writing.

Mrs. J. H. Stuart is in Providence visiting relatives, while Mr. Stuart is on his hunting trip.

C. B. Edgerton is working at Wells River.

H. J. Johnson spent Sunday at Montpelier.

Mrs. Hawkins and children spent Sunday with her aunt, Mrs. Henry Weeks.

A good number attended the reception given Friday evening at the academy to the new teachers and freshmen class. Ice cream and cake were served and a pleasant evening enjoyed.

Mrs. Edith Bell and Miss Alice Van Dyke were at their homes for over Sunday.

Mr. Lowe of Woodsville with several workmen are repairing Van Dyke's block on the corner.

MONROE.

(Mabel Frazer, Correspondent.)

Mrs. Belle Waldo of Marshalltown, Ia., is visiting at the home of Ralph Harding.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Graham of Waltham, Mass., spent a few days last week at Arthur Metcalf's.

Mrs. Florence Emery of Brockport, N. Y., is the guest of her brother, P. E. Blanchard.

Allan Moore of Fitzdale visited his brother, Lawrence Moore, the last of the week.

Lee Pratt is visiting relatives in Boston and Waterville, Me.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Hackett have gone to Manchester for the winter.

The Ladies' Aid society meets Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. P. E. Blanchard.

There will be a Sunday school contest supper at North Monroe vestry Friday evening.

There were about 60 present at the last general meeting, Wednesday night. A chowder supper was served in honor of the men who won in a contest recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Hinman have closed their house in the village and are living at present with his father, Henry Hinman.

Rally Day will be observed in the Sunday school Oct. 1.

Mrs. Anna Dodge of Wilton, N. H., is a guest of Robert Beattie's.

Miss Mary Fisher was at home from Bath for the week-end.

Mrs. H. P. Doane and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. O'Brien of Boston spent a few days last week at Ray Powers'.

There was a corn husking at Albert Lyman's Sunday at George Bort's.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Whitcomb and Mr. and Mrs. Abbot of Littleton, were at R. S. Beattie's Sunday.

Miss Julia Fisher is spending two weeks with Mrs. Ned Oakes at Bath. Mr. and Mrs. George Woodward,

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pratt and Joseph Pratt took an auto trip to the mountains Sunday.

Mrs. Jane Whitcomb has finished work for Mrs. Horace Duncan and is at Robert Beattie's for the present.

SOUTH RYEGATE.

(M. C. Hall, Correspondent.)

A pleasant surprise was given Miss Jeanie Beaton on her birthday, Thursday, when, after choir rehearsal, the members of the choir and other friends to the number of 35 were invited to her home and entertained with Victrola music and a bountiful spread.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Nutbrown and their daughter, Mrs. Ernest Grapes, went Tuesday to the White Mountains returning Wednesday. They spent Tuesday night at the Crawford House, where a relative of theirs is employed.

The choir of the Presbyterian church with a few invited friends enjoyed a corn roast on the island Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Smith have begun housekeeping in their attractive new home.

Alex Beaton, Jr., has rented the Roben house, the Robens having decided to remain on their recently purchased farm on Jefferson Hill.

A party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. James Cruise, Mrs. C. H. Taplin, Rev. S. T. Simpson and Mrs. H. W. Goodine motored to St. Johnsbury Wednesday to attend the Caledonia county Sunday school convention.

Mrs. Craigie and Mrs. Taplin are delegates from the Presbyterian and the United Presbyterian Sunday schools respectively.

Miss Luvia Mann of Woodsville, reader, assisted by Mrs. Adine Farwell of Wells River will give an entertainment in the Presbyterian church Monday evening, Oct. 2.

Communion was observed in the Presbyterian church Sunday, Oct. 1, and the preparatory service will take place Friday evening at 7.45 o'clock.

Miss Anna Buchanan is attending school at Lyndonville.

BARNET

(L. R. Peck, Correspondent.)

Mr. and Mrs. George Walker were visitors in St. Johnsbury, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Brock of West Barnet.

Mrs. Anna Moore Dodge, who has been visiting friends in town, returned to her home in Wilton, N. H., Tuesday.

Byron Berry picked a large saucy dish of black raspberries September 23, which is very unusual in this vicinity so late in the season.

Mrs. George Blair returned from West Lebanon Monday night.

Mrs. Frank Cheney spent Tuesday at McIndoes with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jed Levine.

Miss Eva Gibson of Boston is in town for a few days' visit.

Mrs. Elizabeth Libbey, who has been visiting a sister in Ayers Cliff, P. Q., returned Monday night.

Mrs. Margaret DuShane, who has been at Caspian Lake during the summer is home at present.

Dan Harvey and daughter were St. Johnsbury visitors Tuesday.

Miss Bertha Hazelton returned to Boston yesterday, after spending a week with her relatives here.

Monty Turner had the misfortune to lose an eight-year-old chestnut mare from his pasture recently and as yet it has not been found.

Miss Edith Hazelton was a Wells River visitor Tuesday.

Rev. and Mrs. W. C. Clark were at St. Johnsbury Monday. They attended the "Vermont Roman" at the Globe theatre and saw the pictures of the house where Mrs. Clark was born and lived until she was married.

Mrs. Julius Lang and daughter of Monroe spent Tuesday at John Robinson's.

Mr. and Mrs. James Morgan are at South Peacham for a few days' visit with their daughter, Mrs. Pinya Douse and family.

Mrs. Francis Goodale has returned from her visit in Cabot and St. Johnsbury.

Morris Cohen is spending a couple of days in St. Johnsbury.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira J. Albee, Miss Julia Roy, Mrs. Ellen Smith, and Miss Johnson visited St. Johnsbury Tuesday.

Eugene Fields has been working for Richard Watts.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Turner, Miss Eula Gochee and Mrs. Henry Bell of McIndoes were Boltonville visitors Sunday.

Miss Eva Leonard was in St. Johnsbury Tuesday.

LUNENBURG.

L. W. Hendrick will have an auction of his live stock and farming tools at the Tim Powers farm Friday, Oct. 6, at 10 a. m.

SOUTH WHELOCK.

(Mrs. Lucy Weed, Correspondent.)

Mrs. Herbert Noyes and four children are visiting relatives in Jay.

Clyden Blake has gone to Derby to work for his brother, Alvin.

Mrs. V. R. Weed was called to Lyndonville last Monday by the death of Mrs. Curtis Squires.

NORTH DANVILLE.

(Alice P. Massey, Correspondent.)

There will be a dance at Weeks' hall Friday night, Sept. 28.

Mr. and Mrs. George Clifford and sons, Walter and Stanton, spent Sunday at Mrs. Louise Clifford's.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ward visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Ward, at St. Johnsbury Sunday.

Dea. and Mrs. Charles Clifford visited his sister, Mrs. Charlotte Sanborn, and Mrs. Elvira Badger Sunday.

There was a corn husking at Albert Blewitt's Friday. Some of the boys came right home with several red ears of corn.

A group of several men from Grace Methodist church of St. Johnsbury will speak at the Old Methodist church next Sunday, October 1, at 11 a. m.

SUPREME COURT IN OCTOBER.

Fifty-four Cases, 13 From Caledonia County, Listed on the Docket.

Fifty-four cases, 13 of them from Caledonia county, are listed in the trial calendar for the October term of Supreme Court which were issued Saturday by Clerk L. C. Moody of Montpelier. Court opens the first Tuesday of next month, October 3. Following is a list of Caledonia and Orleans county cases:

Caledonia county—Jennie M. McLeod vs. Albert A. Daniels; Herman D. Webster and Sherburn Lang vs. Luther D. Harris, general assumpsit; The Continental Jewelry Co., apt. vs. estate of David-Frechette, appeal from probate commissioners; Leon Dane vs. Neoma Bean, writ of error; George M. Gray vs. Gilbert H. Williams et al., special assumpsit; John E. Harris, apt. vs. William E. Bailey, general assumpsit; Bert W. Green vs. Lewis I. LeClair, trover; town of Barnet vs. town of Norton, general assumpsit; Martin D. Turner vs. D. J. Howard, apt.; Walter J. Aldrich vs. Boston & Maine railroad, tort; Theresa M. Dionne, apt. vs. American Express Co., tort; State vs. Nilliam Neagle, assault with intent to kill; State vs. Joseph Pilver, selling liquor.

Orleans county—Charles W. Hitchcock vs. George Kannison, bill; William H. Blaisdell vs. Hayden A. McClary, contract; George A. Humphrey vs. O. A. Wheeler, tort; Frank Holbrook vs. E. A. Phoenix and trustee, contract; H. L. Whitcomb vs. S. A. Farnsworth et ux, bill; William Robey vs. Boston & Maine railroad, tort.

SENATORIAL NOMINEES.

Republican Candidates for Upper Branch of Vermont Legislature.

Following are the 30 republican candidates for the office of state senator, nominated at the recent primary: Addison county—H. E. Day of Rippon, A. W. Foote of Cornwall.

Bennington county—W. D. Howe of Readsboro, J. H. Dimond of Manchester.

Caledonia county—W. A. Ricker of St. Johnsbury, M. G. Morse of Hardwick.

Chittenden county—D. C. Hawley, H. S. Peck and M. S. Vilas of Burlington, H. H. Wheeler of South Burlington.

Essex county—G. A. Hubbard of